

Opposed to proposed changes of ownership because it allows excessive government control, political and cultural control of public policy in the hands of few powerful interest. I feel that diversity of opinions and views are important to our democratic principals.

*Sent e-mail on Friday, and was sent a e-mail reply that my comments were not accepted.